Member Profile

Meet Harriet Shiffman!

What brought you to Ner Tamid?

When I moved into the neighborhood with my parents and brother in 1968 Ner Tamid (Greenspring Valley Synagogue) was the only shul in the neighborhood.

Where are you from originally?

Both of my parents were born in Baltimore and I only attended one synagogue before Ner Tamid, Petach Tikvah, and both shuls are religiously the same.

What do you do for a living?

I have worked at Jewish Community Services for 32 years and plan to keep the job until I die or get fired. I love my job.

What do you love about Ner Tamid?

It is great that Ner Tamid is having a resurgence of young families and the Shabbos groups for children are phenomenal. I bring my grandchildren Ella and Tyler to shul every Shabbos and Yom Tov (weather permitting). The best thing about the shul is the diversity in age, level of Judaism, ideology, etc. Ner Tamid is very welcoming to everyone.
