A Note from our Youth Director, Morah Rachel

As the summer comes to a close, and everyone heads back to school, I just wanted to wish you all hatzlacha on a FANTASTIC school year. Although many things change; new teachers, new grade, new classrooms, new friends, and new expectations, there are some things that stay the same. One of those things is that no matter what the challenge, hard work will always pay off. Do your best, and then be proud of it. And if you have a challenge in school or out, that you need help with, I want you to know I am here for you, just an e-mail away. Reach me anytime (6 days a week) at youth@nertamid.net.

Shabbat Shalom! Morah Rachel

NEW! STARTING THIS WEEK IN GROUPS

#THEGREATMIDDAH CHALLENGE

THIS MONTH'S FOCUS: T'SHUVA

As the kids head back to school (many this week), and as we all prepare for the Chagim, the focus of change is in the air. In groups this month, we will be talking about change; how can we change within ourselves? How can we change in relation to others? And what about our relationship with Hashem? Does that change? Starting this week, and each Shabbos thereafter, your child will be given a challenge of the week (based on the discussion we have in groups). Participation is optional, but the rewards will be worth it! Ask your child to see his or her challenge card and see what you can accomplish together!
