Shul Book Group Shabbos August 26, 2017

The Devil and Webster by Jean Hanff Korelits

From the New York Times bestselling author of You Should Have Known and Admission, a twisty new novel about a college president, a baffling student protest, and some of the most hot-button issues on today's college campuses.

Naomi Roth is the first female president of Webster College, a once conservative school now known for producing fired-up, progressive graduates. So Naomi isn't surprised or unduly alarmed when Webster students begin the fall semester with an outdoor encampment around "The Stump" - a traditional campus gathering place for generations of student activists - to protest a popular professor's denial of tenure. A former student radical herself, Naomi admires the protestors' passion, especially when her own daughter, Hannah, joins their ranks. Then Omar Khayal, a charismatic Palestinian student with a devastating personal history, emerges as the group's leader, and the demonstration begins to consume Naomi's life, destabilizing Webster College from the inside out. As the crisis slips beyond her control, Naomi must take increasingly desperate measures to protect her friends, colleagues, and family from an unknowable adversary. Touching on some of the most topical and controversial concerns at the heart of our society, this riveting novel examines the fragility that lies behind who we think we are-and what we think we believe.

Please make a reservation by notifying the Ner Tamid office. The cost is $7. Send your check directly to the Shul.

Message from Rebbetzin Leibowitz & Family

L'Chvod Rabbi Motzen and All My Wonderful Sisterhood and Shul Friends,

There is no adequate way to express my gratitude for the beautiful Shabbos Kiddush that you so thoughtfully prepared in my honor. I am also so appreciative of the special framed picture that you gave to me. Thank you from the bottom of my heart, and I only hope I can see you soon IY"H and join you for Shabbos davening. The Shul was (is) the highlight of my life, (along with my grandchildren and great grandchildren)!

With love,
Ruth Leibowitz

The family of Ruth Leibowitz would like to express our appreciation for the gorgeous, thoughtful Kiddush and tribute you gave to our mother, Bubie and Great Bubie. You are her family as well. May Hashem bless you with only simchas and good health.
