Community News

On May 15th, hungry supporters from across America will flock to kosher restaurants to participate in this year's America Eats for Israel program.

Kosher restaurants across the U.S. volunteered to donate 10% of one day's proceeds to American Friends of Meir Panim, supporting programs that provide food and social services to the impoverished of Israel.

America Eats for Israel (AE4I) was initiated by students of Yeshivat Rambam in Baltimore looking to make a real difference. It is now coordinated by student volunteers at Beth Tfiloh Dahan Community School, Ner Tamid, NCSY and Ohr Chadash.

You can see the event on the <http://americaeatsforisrael.com> and Facebook event page at: <http://www.facebook.com/events/1511871475498932> (please invite your friends to attend via Facebook!).

"It is a day when you will see people from all segments of the community – students in uniform from Beth Tfiloh, Kreiger Schechter, Bnos Yisrael and Bais Yaakov, amongst others – and it is wonderful to see our community united for a common cause."

We hope to start posting lists of participating restaurants in the next few weeks.
