Their Promised Land: My Grandparents in Love and War-Ian Buruma
Ian Buruma's grandparents were prosperous English Jews who were very English in the way that their family in Germany were very German. The book addresses the problems of being Jewish, cultural assimilation and anti-Semitism. They were able to rescue 12 Jewish children from the Nazis and support them in England. Buruma uses the thousands of letters his grandparents wrote to each other during their separation through 2 world wars to construct the story.

The cost is $7, you can send a check directly to the Shul.

New on the Website!!!

We are pleased to announce Rabbi Motzen's new Podcast!
Missed a class? No problem!
Many of the classes taught at Ner Tamid and elsewhere will be posted on the Shul website
as well as iTunes.

The Podcast is dedicated by Max and Sarah Shapiro in memory of their beloved son Edan Shay. Through our Torah study in his memory, his Neshama should have an Aliyah.
