Please note, there will not be a Ner Tamid communal Seder this year. If you do not have plans for the Seder and would like to be hosted, please contact Rabbi Motzen at rabbimotzen@nerTamid.net.

Are you interested in learning Hebrew? A number of members are looking to start an Ulpan at Ner Tamid. Please contact Dina Cotton at dinacotton@hotmail.com for more details.

The Jewish Caring Network Women’s Race, will take place at the Baltimore Zoo on Sunday morning, June 16th. To join Ner Tamid’s team or for more information, please contact Hannah Heller at hmheller18@gmail.com.

MEET ADINA BURSTYN, TEHILLAH AND AHUVA

1) How did you first hear about Ner Tamid?
I came in the first time in July, 2018 for Shevy Ashman’s son, Ami’s Bar Mitzvah. It was just love at first sight! Between the Rabbi’s sermon and the friendly and warm atmosphere of the community, I was sold!

2) How long have you been members?
I joined in August, 2018.

3) What is your religious background?
I was born in Boston and then moved to Baltimore when I was 5. I grew up Orthodox and went to Beis Yaakov.

4) What do you do for a living?
I own a salon, I am a licensed esthetician. I’ve been doing it for 14 years and I love it!

5) Anything unusual you could tell us about yourselves?
I volunteer for fun. I’m passionate about the community, I help the JCN and Bikur Cholim on a weekly basis collecting shabbos packages in my large fridge and coordinating deliveries.

6) What part of Ner Tamid are you most excited about?
I am so grateful for having found this new family. I love that there are so many events for kids and families. I rarely miss the Rabbi’s speech which is always on target and very inspiring.
MESSAGE FROM OUR YOUTH DIRECTOR

As a Youth Director, I feel my mission at Ner Tamid is often one of a secret double agent. For the kids- its all about the fun. What can I do to make their time at Ner Tamid fun, exciting and unique? What can I do so they will keep coming back because they know with certainty that whatever trick I pull out of my hat, its going to be awesome. But as a double agent, I've got a different mission. A mission to create meaningful Jewish experiences which will draw the kids into learning, into Jewish opportunities that teach them about their culture, heritage, religion, about who they are...who we are. As we look ahead to one of the main themes of Purim, we see that often the things that are hidden are the most important, and that is often how Ner Tamid Youth Programing works. If the kids leave having the time of their lives, I’ve won. If the kids have a deeper meaning or understanding about their history, heritage or culture, I’ve won. If they have more questions and are seeking answers about Judaism, I’m really winning. These are kids who are coming back. These are kids who are not just sitting in groups while you participate in Judaism. These kids are active participants as well. They are the future of Ner Tamid and the future of Klas Yisrael.

An upcoming event that the Youth Department is looking forward to is Intergenerational Shabbat. On April 13th, as part of the special programming, the youth will be receiving new siddurim and we will celebrate together something that connects all the generations; our tefilot. As we join together in the main shul in song and prayer, we will also take some time to connect to one another, generation to generation, Dor l’Dor. Whether you are interested in Politics and real estate or Pokémon and slime, we all have a special connection: Ner Tamid, the Sefer Torah, our Connection to Hashem and our Judaism. This will be celebrated at Intergenerational Shabbat.

If you would like to donate one (or more) of the new Siddurim that need to be purchased for the groups, please contact Rachel Shar at Youth@nertamid.net. For $20, a siddur can be bought, inscribed and presented at Intergenerational Shabbat.

As you look around, our youth program is growing as our families are growing. This month we opened a new Shabbos morning Mommy and Me room for mothers of newborns looking for a place to sit with their babies, sing songs and spend time with one another.

As I said, I am a double agent. I am here for the youth. But I am also here for you; for the longevity and the legacy of Ner Tamid. When we program Kid’s Choice Shabbat; coming up on March 30, we are giving the kids the power to choose: what we eat, what games we play, what tunes we use for benching, what prizes we get. But we also are connecting Kids to their Judaism. To their Jewish friendships and relationships. And to Ner Tamid. May we continue to grow as a shul, not only in number, but also in our connections to one another, m’dor l’Dor.

Shabbat Shalom.
Rachel Shar
