THE AMAZING ADVENTURES OF KAVALIER & CLAY
Michael Chabon

This novel celebrates the golden age of the adventure comic book, the "great, mad new American art form," which spanned the years between the late 1930’s and the early 50’s. It was a thriving time for popular culture, and Chabon vividly recalls the swing music, the pulp novels, "Citizen Kane," the bars of midtown New York, the bar mitzvahs of midtown New York, men’s bulky suits and the patriotic kitsch inspired by the Second World War. Although suffused with tragedy, "The Amazing Adventures of Kavalier & Clay" proves to be a comic epic, generously optimistic about the human struggle for personal liberation.

Please make a reservation by notifying the Ner Tamid office. The cost is $7. You can send a check directly to the Shul.
Weekly Classes

We are excited to have noted children's author Bracha Goetz join on Shabbos June 4, 2016, to read from some of her books to our children. She will read to preschool at 10:30 am and elementary at 11 am. Bracha Goetz is a Harvard grad who is an international speaker and columnist as well as the author of over 30 spiritual children's books. She inspires people of all ages to shine from the inside out. Her books make life's deepest concepts clear - in a delightfully simple way. Find big ideas in little words: Bracha Goetz can be contacted at bgoetzster@gmail.com. Please note that this activity is weather dependent. If it is raining or excessively hot she will not be available.
