Meet Sam and Yael Goldstein!

1. What brought you to Ner Tamid?
My best friend Lauren Schleifer, the Rabbi’s sermons, the out-of-town feel and the fact that all the families were all so inviting. So Sam and I kept on coming back!

2. Where are you from originally?
Sam is originally from the Lower East Side, NY and Yael grew up in Cleveland, OH. Knowing that we finally found a community Shul that shared our similar religious values was imperative to us raising a family here in Baltimore.

3. What do you do for a living?
Yael recently earned her doctorate degree in Audiology at Towson University and is currently practicing at Chesapeake Ear Nose and Throat in Owings Mills. Sam manages a local wholesale distribution company called Shindler Foods. Sam and I are lucky to have found jobs that we love.

4. Anything unusual you could tell us about yourselves, kids, pets? Or an interesting unknown fact about you.
We have an incredible daughter, Gabby who is now 3 and a half (the half is very important to her). Gabby loves coming to NT and attending groups with her friends. She started attending Ohr Chadash in the fall and is so excited that many of her friends from NT will be joining her!

5. What do you hope will come about at Ner Tamid in the future?
Ner Tamid has become a home away from home for us and we hope that many friendships will continue to be created through this beautiful family!

We have a new feature every two weeks and we would love to profile you! Email nertamid613@comcast.net for details.
