Their Promised Land: My Grandparents in Love and War

Ian Buruma

Ian Buruma’s grandparents (the film director John Schlesinger’s parents) were prosperous English Jews who were very English in the way that their family in Germany were very German. The book addresses the problems of being Jewish, cultural assimilation and anti-Semitism. They were able to rescue 12 Jewish children from the Nazis and support them in England. Buruma uses the thousands of letters his grandparents wrote to each other during their separation through 2 world wars to construct the story. Please make a reservation by notifying the Ner Tamid office. The cost is $7. You can send a check directly to the Shul.

Rabbi’s Discussion Question of the Week:

This Shabbos is known as Shabbos Shira because this week’s Parsha includes Az Yashir, the song the Jewish People sang when crossing the Red Sea. The Jews didn’t sing to G-d after any of the plagues, only after the splitting of the sea. In what ways is the splitting of the sea more miraculous or more important than the ten plagues?

Email your answer to rabbi@nertamid.net to be entered into a monthly raffle to win great prizes! Please indicate if the question was discussed at your Shabbos table for an EXTRA ticket! The raffle takes place once a month immediately before Kiddush. Open to students grades 1-12.
