On behalf of the entire Ner Tamid Greenspring Valley Synagogue Family, we extend our heartfelt condolences to Ruth Greenfeld, her children and the entire Greenfeld family on the loss of their beloved husband, father, grandfather, and good friend, David Greenfeld.

For those of us who have been fortunate enough to have been touched by his kindness and generosity, his absence from our midst will be surely felt. His love, devotion, loyalty and dedication to our synagogue was known to all of us who had the good fortune of knowing him and working with him.

His greatest quality was his willingness to help and counsel our synagogue whenever in need.

He truly gave of himself every minute and every day of his service of this synagogue.

David Greenfeld was a very special human being.

As we remember David Greenfeld, he exemplified the phrase:

"שוחתי י' עליון טוביה"

"He placed the Lord before him always"

This is the synagogue in which David put his life, to make sure that prayers, Torah and maintenance, are kept to the highest level.

The greatest tribute we can pay him, is to always remember him as a mensch and a servant of G-d.

"יזכרו בברכה והחיים שהוא שמרם ויהלום על משבה" "Let his soul be bound up in the bond of life and may he rest in peace."

And let him be a good beitter for his family and all of us here at Ner Tamid Greenspring Valley Synagogue.

Max Jacob

Fair Labor Lawyer: The Remarkable Life of New Deal Attorney and Supreme Court Advocate Bessie Margolin
By Marion Trestman
With exhaustive research and engaging prose -- uniquely informed by the intersecting lives of author and subject -- Trestman’s Fair Labor Lawyer recounts Margolin's thrilling and inspirational journey from New Orleans Jewish Orphans Home through the New Deal to the nation's highest courts, where she shepherded the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and the Equal Pay Act of 1963. An elegant and tireless champion of wage and hour rights for American workers, Margolin opened doors for women, one courtroom at a time.
