Rabbi’s Discussion Question of the Week:

The first plague of blood was not performed by Moshe. Instead, Aharon hit the Nile and it turned into blood. Our Sages explain that since Moshe’s life was saved by the waters of the Nile, Moshe did not feel comfortable hitting the water.

Our Sages learn from here the extreme measures we need to go when being grateful to others. Although the water has no feelings, Moshe never forgot what it did for him and was forever thankful.

Can you think of three people in your life who help you in some fashion but you normally do not pay attention to them? (To get you started - how about Tren, our custodian? We wouldn’t have lights, warmth, clean floors if he wasn’t around. Can you think of two more?)

Email your answer to rabbi@nertamid.net to be entered into a monthly raffle to win great prizes!! Please indicate if the question was discussed at your Shabbos table for an EXTRA ticket! The raffle takes place once a month immediately before Kiddush. Open to students grades 1-12.
Our Synagogue is available for all your simchas! Our beautiful Reitberger Auditorium and Koman-Keyser Sanctuary are available to rent, special rates for members. Contact the office, 410-358-6500.

We are working on improving our beloved Shabbos Sheet. If you have any suggestions, please call the office at (410)358-6500.
