Fair Labor Lawyer: The Remarkable Life of New Deal Attorney and Supreme Court Advocate Bessie Margolin
By Marion Trestman

With exhaustive research and engaging prose - uniquely informed by the intersecting lives of author and subject -- Trestman's Fair Labor Lawyer recounts Margolin's thrilling and inspirational journey from New Orleans Jewish Orphans Home through the New Deal to the nation's highest courts, where she shepherded the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 and the Equal Pay Act of 1963. An elegant and tireless champion of wage and hour rights for American workers, Margolin opened doors for women, one courtroom at a time.

Cost: $7. Please make a reservation with the Ner Tamid Office.
You can send a check directly to the Shul.
